

Book Challenge Tasks – Years 1&2

How will you know I've read a book?

You will need to show that you have read each book for your teacher to stamp your passport. There are lots of different ways you can show this, some ideas are below, but you are welcome to come up with your own ideas too. Make sure you choose different ways to show you have read different books.

-  Pick a character from your text. Draw a picture of them, name them and add some adjectives to describe how they look e.g. Long hair, smiley face
-  Take a picture of you reading the book and send it to your teacher on Seesaw
-  Find and copy examples of the following sentence types: simple sentence, statement, question, command or exclamation.
-  What could happen next? Draw a picture or write in a few sentences what might happen next
-  List any vocabulary you didn't know
-  Draw a picture of one of the events in the book
-  Dress up as one of the characters and send in a photo of you as them
-  List all the settings (where it takes place) in the book
-  Tell your teacher what you liked about the book
-  Write a blurb for the book you have read
-  Design a new book cover
